

Request for Canadian Forces Assistance

Units requesting support from Canadian Forces must be prepared to supply suitable RCMP personnel to accompany and communicate with Canadian Forces resources. Members accompanying Canadian Forces personnel must be familiar with the operation and be able to provide direction when required.

File Number
2022-74888

Request Details

Name of Operation

Freedom Convoy 2022 - Ottawa Trucker Protest

Overview of Operational Plan (this field expands)

National Division Critical Incident Program (Emergency Response Team) (ERT) will be providing tactical assistance to RCMP protective units in the NCR. It is expected that the 1500 truckers will disrupt and block roads near Parliament Hill, GG residence, Prime Minister of Canada's residence and Cottage. The mandate of National Divisional and the RCMP is the protection of VIPs and protected locations.

Availability of RCMP or Private Sector Assets

☐ Available ☒ Not Available

Confirm that feasibility of plan has been discussed with local Canadian Forces personnel

☐ Yes ☒ No

Location and/or detachment area where operation will occur (this field expands)

This operation will take place in the NCR region and Harrington Lake, in Chelsea, Qc

s.38

Date Required (yyyy-mm-dd)

2022-01-28

Number of Days or Hours Required

4 Days

s.38

Identify any Other Agencies Involved (this field expands)

Protecting policing services (PPS)
Ottawa Police

RCMP Contact Persons for the Operation

Name	Rank	Telephone Number (include area code)	Cellular Number (include area code)
Rod Macleod	Insp.	613-978-5110	613-290-6116

Requesting Member

Name	Regimental No.	Division	Section
Chris Picknell	52383	National	ERT
Signature	Date (yyyy-mm-dd)
	JAN 26 2022

Request for Canadian Forces Assistance

Security Designation Protected B

Approved by Commanding Officer or Delegate (usually OIC Criminal Operations)
Name Ches W. Parsons , A.Comm	Signature Ches W. Parsons 000039430 signed electronically	Date (yyyy-mm-dd) 2022-01-26